NARRATIVE:

Acevedo, a documented gang member, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include vehicle tampering, inflicting corporal injury on spouse or cohabitant, violation of parole, evading a peace officer with disregard for safety, burglary, under the influence of a controlled substance, driving with a suspended license, failure to appear, battery on a spouse, disorderly conduct, DUI alcohol, and possession of controlled substances. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 3 year term for evading a peace officer with disregard for safety. Acevedo was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 12, 2011. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in May 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Acevedo qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for the charge of burglary is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
